

Fearfully and Wonderfully Made

Psalms 139

1. Psalm 139 is a _____ psalm by _____. It was meant to be sung or accompanied by music (For the director of music.) It has deep theology about God.
2. The psalm has five stanzas with an imprecatory section within it.
 - _____. He is _____ (vv. 1-6).
 - Knows my _____
 - Knows my _____
 - Knows my _____
 - Knows my _____
 - Knows my _____ before I _____
 - Knows what is _____ for me; loves me enough to give me _____
 - _____. He is _____ (vv. 7-12).
 - With me no matter _____
 - With me to _____ me
 - With me when things seem _____; everything is _____ in the LORD's presence
 - _____. He is _____ (vv. 13-18).
 - Created my _____ and _____ them
 - Created me in the most _____
 - Created me in the womb like _____ a piece of fabric
 - Created me _____ and determined the _____
 - Created me and _____ often – too many times to count
 - Created me for _____ and reassures me of a _____

- After contemplating who God is and how invested He is in _____ of our lives, David expressed _____ toward God's enemies—murderous, irreverent, and blasphemous. In his zeal for God, David asked God to take _____ on the wicked (vv. 19-22).
- David was aware of his own propensity to sin. He closed his psalm with a courageous prayer, asking God to _____ and to _____ to see if there was any offensive way in him—anything that _____. He wanted God _____ anything that would keep him from being a _____ (vv. 23-25).

Spiritual App

I am fearfully and wonderfully made. I can rejoice that God knows all about me and, yet _____. No matter what I go through in life, _____. His desire for me is to let Him _____ so He can show me the areas which are _____. He wants me to live in _____.

HOMEWORK

REVIEW: Psalms 139 and reread the Spiritual App

READ: _____

Song: _____

By: _____