2 Timothy 3:10-17

[10] You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance,

[11] persecutions, sufferings—what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.

[12] In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,

[13] while evildoers and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

[14] But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it,

[15] and how from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

[16] All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,

[17] so that the servant of God^[a] may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Three things...

First, Martha and I want to thank you for your outpouring of support and prayer. You have encouraged us greatly with your kindness toward us in so many ways.

Martha's surgery is scheduled for Friday, January 29. After a few days in the hospital, we will be home recuperating and hopefully making a very rapid recovery.

During this time, you can reach me or another pastor by calling Jackie Clark Branton, my Ministry Assistant at 985-892-2149 (the church office number).

Our pastors are ready to minister and to serve. Please let them help you with anything you need.

Second, we are amazed and encouraged by how many new people are attending First Baptist Church.

If you are one of those, we hope you will attend our virtual Discovery Class next Sunday, January 31, from 5:00-6:30PM. The Discovery Class will bring you up-to-date on what you need to know to be a member of FBC as well as how to get fully involved in the life of the church body.

Ask your questions, learn our values, and let the Pastoral Team get to know you personally. By the end of the evening, you'll know the ins and outs of FBC Covington and where you can fit in!

Third, as our church continues to grow, we are in need of servant ministers. I have been very encouraged by the people who say, "I want to serve."

Your ministry makes First Baptist Church function. Please let our pastors know of your gifts, interests, and availability to serve. We will look forward to hearing from you and helping you find your place at FBC.
